April 26, 2006 from 9:00 a.m.— 3:30 p.m. at the Carnegie Center, Phoenix
Come join Pam Berger, internationally recognized expert on 21st Century libraries, to learn how public and teacher-librarians can use the easy, digital technology of blogs to work together. Attending in teams is strongly encouraged.
- Caring for Yourself While Caring for Your Aging Parents
April 27, 2006 from 10:45 a.m.—11:30 a.m. at the Carnegie Center, Phoenix
Join fellow librarians and library staff in an informal discussion with Claire Berman, author of Caring for Yourself While Caring for your Aging Parents. Learn how you can help your "sandwich generation" customers with library services and resources.

Project Updates

- ONEBOOKAZ
In April, all of Arizona reads and discusses the same book. Visit www.onebookaz.org to see the programs being conducted. If your program is not listed, please add it. Evaluations and surveys are on the website along with tools for book discussions for adults and children. Suggestions for next year are appreciated.
- Friends Conference
Make sure your boards and friends don't miss out on information and networking opportunities at the 2006 Statewide Friends of Libraries Conference on Friday, April 28th, at the Burton Barr Central Library. See www.phoenixlibraryfriends.org for registration information.
